NORTH DAKOTA MUSEUM OF ART

GIN IN BLOOM, THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 2025

A benefit for the North Dakota Museum of Art | In Collaboration with Far North Spirits

The North Dakota Museum of Art has teamed up with Far North Spirits, a field-to-glass distillery in Hallock, MN, for the Eighth Annual Gin in Bloom (formerly known as Rye on the Rocks), a craft cocktail contest held in the Museum's galleries featuring Far North Spirits' gin products.

On Thursday, April 24, a select group of area bartenders will vie for bragging rights with their original cocktails or classics with a twist. Guests sample each creation and vote in two categories – Most Original and People's Choice, the evening's top award. A panel of judges will award Judges Choice.

FÅR NORTH SPIRITS

This is the only event of its kind in the area, and we look forward to growing it each year. However, to do so, we are asking for your help. It means a great deal to the Museum to have the support of the Valley's business community. By working together we'll maintain lively activities within our community and keep alive a vital cultural life. Sponsorships and ticket sales from Gin in Bloom support the Museum's many programs, such as educational opportunities, music programs, exhibitions, art camps, and more.

Congratulations to last year's award winners!
